

Key SOP Elements for Canada

- Introduce yourself and your family background: Provide your short descriptive regarding you and your family background. The visa officer can be more assured about your financial when you give your family introduction. Also, this section lets the officer know who is addressing them
- Academic Background: This section is one of the important because this section lets the officer know whether you are eligible to study the chosen course or not. Make sure you prove your grades from the previous educational background. Also mention which course you are going to study in which college in Canada.
- Explain the gap in studies or low grades: If you have any kinds of study gaps during your course of study address them properly. If you have any gaps after higher secondary school or undergraduate education mention the clear picture of them. Why you have the study gap and what have you done during the gap? Provide the clear view of your gap properly.
- Do you have any professional experience? If you have any professional experience during your study time, then mention it. The learning you have learnt can be determining factor for your study permit. This is mostly necessary when you have study gap. Also, some courses required experience for which this section should be well explained.
- Field of interest and course: The principal component of a SOP is the field of interest and the chose program. For what reason would you like to pick a particular course? How might the course assist you with upgrading your insight and construct a drawn-out profession? With regards to picking a program, you should be certain it is helpful for you. When you address these inquiries in your SOP, it will explain to the peruser that you are the best fit for the course since you have lucidity of objectives.
- Why Canada? To wrap things up, for what reason would you say you are intending to move to Canada? Why not your own nation or some other country? At the point when you answer this inquiry, it gives them an unmistakable image of your intentions. Ensure that you research qualities and shortcomings, advantages and disadvantages, crime percentage, instruction framework, work situation, hourly rate, and so on Clarifying the pragmatic explanations for picking Canada guarantees the exploring panel that you are good to go and can deal with the circumstance abroad.
- Why only this college/university? Among such countless schools and colleges in Canada, what caused you to pick a particular school? Here, it is fundamental for notice the school's notable components like foundation, number of courses, enlistment measure, openings offered by the school and educational expense. It will tell the specialists that you have done top to bottom examination about the school and picked their regarded school solely after legitimate investigation. You can specify the tributes of the graduated class's and why you are certain that it is the best school for your profession. Also provide comparison between different countries and subject and other expect that can highlight the interest towards Canadian program. Mention the recognition of the university or college. Compare the fee structure and course listing of the different university and college.

CUBE EDUCATION

“Your Partner for your Global Education”

- Future Prospects: In this section show where you will find after graduating from the Canadian school. Explain about the PGWP and how it is going to help you in future after returning to Nepal. How the Canadian work experience is going to help you in the future. Always try to explain that you will return your country and use the knowledge and skills gained during the study period. Clarify your points with the suitable examples of the companies in Nepal. Like if you are from Hotel Management background provide examples of the world-renowned hotel chains and other opportunities that you can get in Nepal. Show the opportunities that you will be getting after the education in your home country. Having the clear future lets the officer convince that you will return your country.
- Conclusion: A firm end is pretty much as fundamental as a presentation. You can't simply leave the SOP with no conclusion. Ensure when you compose an end, it is hopeful and reasonable. Most of the applicant tires to convince the officer emotionally which is not current. Eventually, be polite and anticipate positive input.s